

New York City Business Meeting Facilities at Grand Hyatt

Finding the perfect location in New York City for business meetings just became easier. Michelle Bozikova, Catering Manager, at the Grand Hyatt offers personalized business meeting planning services.

Financial, Pharmaceutical, Legal, Retail or Non-Profit organizations are often challenged to find the perfect location for a New York City meeting. Manhattan business meetings may range from planning sessions with the top executives to all day legal depositions but all require ease of access for those who are traveling to your meeting.

Often times it is difficult to find a neutral location in New York that offers convenience for all parties; suitable space, friendly and competent staff, state of the art technical equipment, sleek and comfortable environment, the option of food and beverage service and sleeping room accommodations. The Grand Hyatt is an ideal solution to New York business meeting facilities.

The Grand Hyatt New York offers a stylish venue with a Park Avenue address, perfect for sharing and celebrating with friends, family and colleagues. This 36-story contemporary hotel creates a vibrant atmosphere with exquisite service that few hotels in the world can mirror. Events are immaculately orchestrated to ensure our guests experience the sophisticated styling of our hotel.

Located directly next to Grand Central Terminal, the Grand Hyatt New York is convenient for those traveling within Manhattan or from New Jersey, Connecticut, Long Island, the Five Boroughs or even internationally. Most subway lines run through the 42nd Street, Grand Central Terminal stop. There are buses that run throughout the day from both John F. Kennedy and La Guardia airport that depart and arrive at Grand Central.

At the Grand Hyatt New York, we utilize top of the line amenities, designated meeting concierge, impeccable service, advanced technology, onsite business center, signature cuisines, and the Gold Passport Meeting Dividends Program, our staff creates a rewarding meeting experience for you and your attendees.

Open to the limits of your imagination, The Grand Hyatt culinary team will strive to create your heart's desire. The Grand Hyatt New York is also able to accommodate any special dietary requests that you or your guests may have.

Known as one of the largest hotels in New York City, the Grand Hyatt New York has 55,000 square feet of meeting space, contemporary function space, comfortable furnishings and the latest technology which makes the hotel one of the top choices for meetings and events.

The hotel has two major floors that are perfect for small meetings. The 14th Floor Executive Boardrooms were recently a part of a $65 million renovation. The entire 14th floor has been converted to 22 special-function executive boardrooms for small, more intimate meetings and can be used for classroom, conference, reception and even break sessions. Each room is equipped with state of the art media cabinets containing a 42" flat screen plasma monitor capable of displaying computer presentations and VHS and DVD video playback.

The Conference level is an $8 million newly renovated level featuring 15 modern meeting rooms and state of the art boardrooms.

The Hyatt Meeting Dividends gives one more reason to choose the Grand Hyatt to host your meeting. With Hyatt Meeting Dividends, you can earn up to 50,000 Hyatt Gold Passport points per meeting, group incentive or catering/banqueting event. The points you earn can be redeemed for a variety of travel awards.

A meeting concierge is on-call for you throughout your meeting and can assist you with any requirements. They are the person who will be by your side throughout your meeting to insure that your meeting is a success. The meeting concierge is a liaison between the on-site contact and all the departments within the hotel. They are there from start to finish; inspecting your meeting room in the beginning and until the last guest leaves.

If you would like additional information on planning your next meeting at The Grand Hyatt, contact Michelle Bozikova, Catering Manager. Michelle will work with you through the entire planning process; room selection, catering, audio visuals, lodging and event day concierge services. Michelle Bozikova will ensure that your Grand Hyatt business meeting is a great success. She will go over all details of the meeting to ensure that it will run smoothly.

<http://www.grandnewyork.hyatt.com>